

SPRING 2021

NEW PROGRAMMING

PASSION
DISTRIBUTION

WELCOME

I am incredibly proud and pleased to introduce Passion's latest line up of content for our Spring pop-up market.

As ever, we remain focused and dedicated to offering you high quality programming with broad appeal and points of difference. Extraordinary human stories, premium crime documentaries, aspirational lifestyle and great entertainment take a place of pride in our slate. This year, for the first time in a little while, we're also incredibly proud to bring you an exciting new drama!

From the producers of Hinterland, new drama bregus/fragile is a must-watch psychological thriller series which reveals how fragile the seemingly perfectly ordinary life of a group of friends unravels when tragedy strikes.

Real human tragedy is also the theme of our Untold Stories, a collection of premium true crime documentaries that deliver the definitive story of some of the most notorious crimes of recent times.

Our new single documentary Jihadi Smartphone is a remarkable, personal record of how three young men became radicalised and ultimately, how their actions were a one-way journey to certain death.

On a lighter note, the brand new lifestyle series Lap of Luxury features the most beautiful rural retreats set in spectacular scenery across Australia and New Zealand. Steeped in history, natural beauty and architectural magnificence, each lodge has a fascinating story of its own.

Here Come the Gypsies is a new documentary series that lifts the lid on this incredible community's unique traditions and codes and provides a fascinating insight into their constant battle to keep their culture alive.

We are also delighted to bring you additional series of some of our existing franchises, including two new series of Architecture the Railways Built, the revealing documentary series which marvels at the rich history and exquisite architecture of Europe's railway buildings.

There is plenty more for you to discover and acquire, so dive in!

As always, we're keen to discuss these titles and many more and look forward to continuing our collaboration with you.

6 x 60'

Producer: Fiction Factory Films

Commissioning Channel: S4C

Successful heart surgeon Ellie Bateman seemingly has the perfect life – a loving husband a beautiful daughter and a close knit group of friends who mean the world to her and her to them. They have what they need and know who they are until an unforeseeable tragedy changes the life that they know beyond all recognition.

Desperate to forget, Ellie survives the only way she knows how – She runs, far from the comfort of her loved ones and finds herself lost in a life she no longer recognises. A life that no longer has meaning.

Will she ever find her way back? Is that even what she wants? Or will she choose to lose herself in a perfect storm beyond her control?

Inspired by true events, bregus is a character psychological thriller about a woman, her marriage, her friends and how seismic change shatters their illusions of who and what they all are as people.

UNTOLD

From ITN Productions comes a series of landmark crime documentaries exploring some of the most notorious crime cases of recent years.

Told by those who lived it, some speaking for the very first time, each documentary features exclusive witness testimonies, rarely seen archive and first-hand accounts from the police and community involved.

Cinematic in scope and featuring first person narratives from those involved in cases, these are the definitive films of crimes that continue to shock and fascinate.

Documentaries include:

Untold: The Disappearance of Shannon Matthews (3 x 60')

Untold: The Wests (3 x 60')

Untold: The Killing of James Bulger (3 x 60')

Untold: The Railway Murders (3 x 60')

UNTOLD: THE WESTS

NEW

3 x 60'

Producer: ITN Productions

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

The murders of twelve young women by Fred and Rosemary West are among Britain's most infamous crimes.

Their killing spree went undiscovered for years, as an apparently normal life continued at 25 Cromwell Street, in Gloucester.

Featuring exclusive witness testimony and rarely seen archive, this definitive documentary series will reveal the true horror of what took place behind closed doors at that notorious address.

Unearthed home videos expose the veneer of a happy family that disguised the house of horror's murderous secrets.

Police recordings, and new interviews with lawyers and police reveal a killer who continued to crave control, and protect a murderous wife – who would ultimately be the only one to face justice for the killings.

As victim after victim is uncovered by investigators, we hear their stories; families, surviving victims and key witnesses come forward to reveal the real people behind the grisly headlines, and details of the lives that were tragically cut short.

These films will explain how and why these women were killed. And who their killers really were.

Told by those who lived it, some speaking for the first time, this is the definitive, untold story of how Fred and Rosemary West became Britain's most notorious killer couple.

UNTOLD: THE DISAPPEARANCE OF SHANNON MATTHEWS

NEW

3 x 60'

Producer: ITN Productions

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

Nine months after the disappearance of Madeleine McCann, nine-year-old Shannon Matthews goes missing.

Her disappearance a total mystery that triggers the biggest investigation in the region since the hunt for the Yorkshire Ripper. This is a tragic tale of deception, betrayal and dark secrets.

This series tells the story of the extraordinary kidnap of nine-year-old Shannon Matthews in 2008.

UNTOLD: THE KILLING OF JAMES BULGER

NEW

3 x 60'

Producer: ITN Productions

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

The abduction, torture and murder of James Bulger by Robert Thomson and Jon Venables stunned the entire country and has seeped into the public consciousness like no other crime.

At 15:42 on the 12th February 1993, a CCTV camera captured footage of two young boys leading a two year-old child away from the Strand shopping centre in Bootle, Merseyside. 48 hours later, the toddler's mutilated body was found on a railway track almost 3 miles away from the scene of the abduction.

In this brand new documentary series, ITN Productions and Channel 5 tell the definitive story of the case, examining in forensic detail what happened on that tragic day, how the young killers were caught and the legacy of a trial that still divides opinion to this day.

In a worldwide exclusive, James Bulger's three brothers reveal how the crime continues to affect their family while their mother Denise recalls the devastating events leading up to and following the abduction in never before heard detail.

With chilling insights from the detectives who investigated the murder, the professionals who worked with the killers, and politicians who dealt with the legacy of the case, this landmark series asks how this crime happened and why, almost 30 years later, the name 'James Bulger' still sends shock waves through the country.

UNTOLD: THE RAILWAY MURDERS

NEW

3 x 60'

Producer: ITN Productions

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

In December 1985, Alison Day disappeared after getting off a train at Hackney Wick station. Over the next six months, two more women would be snatched at stations across the South East.

Rumours began to circulate that a serial killer was stalking the railways, and that he was linked to a series of sex attacks across London going back years. But who was he? And could there be any truth in the rumour that there was a team of killers working together?

It took another fourteen years for the police to close the case on the so-called 'Railway Killers'. It was a case that rewrote our understanding of murderers, and how to catch them.

Through dramatic reconstruction and testimony from police officers and the victims' friends, The Railway Murders reveals every twist and turn in this extraordinary case. Across three episodes this landmark series explores the devastating impact of these crimes, as well as the shocking revelation of the killers' identity.

MURDER IN A SMALL TOWN

NEW

2 x 60'

Producer: Firecracker Films

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

In the summer of 2003, 14-year old schoolgirl Jodi Jones was brutally murdered in a quiet Scottish town. In a shocking twist, her killer was revealed to be her 14 year old boyfriend, Luke Mitchell. He has always denied murdering Jodi and continues to maintain his innocence.

Now, 17 years after the murder of Jodi Jones, this two part documentary will re-examine the case against Luke Mitchell. With exclusive recordings, from inside prison, he will tell his story. Was an innocent child wronged by the criminal justice system, and could this be Britain's most shocking miscarriage of justice?

ALL NEW COLD JUSTICE

New season

Season 3: 12 x 60'

Total available: 48 x 60'

Producer: Magical Elves and Wolf Reality

Commissioning Channel: Oxygen

From Executive Producer Dick Wolf, this crime reality investigation series follows former prosecutor Kelly Siegler and a team of crime scene investigators and detectives as they crack cold cases.

Kelly Siegler, a Texas prosecutor for over 20 years who has successfully tried over 68 murder cases, and her team of crime scene investigators and trained detectives, put their vast knowledge and experience to work, helping local law-enforcement officers and families of violent-crime victims get to the truth.

With a fresh set of eyes on old evidence, superior interrogation skills and access to advanced DNA technology and lab testing, Siegler is determined to bring about a legal and emotional resolution.

Taking on a different unsolved crime each episode, they carefully re-examine evidence, question suspects and witnesses, and chase down leads in order to solve cases that would have otherwise remained cold indefinitely.

Total available: 13 x 60'

Producer: Raise the Roof and Motion Content Group

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

Kate Humble: My Little Farm is a series packed with fun, escapism and enthusiasm for living a self-sufficient life in the countryside.

Television presenter Kate moved from the city to the countryside ten years ago and has fully embraced a self-sufficient life in her little farm in Monmouthshire.

In each episode, Kate shares her passion for the fresh, clean air of the countryside and also works up a sweat looking after her family of animals and cooking up an array of dishes from the kitchen garden.

The area around the farm is also home to a whole host of local producers who join Kate to bake bread, make preserves, cure her own bacon and she even develops a real passion for foraging and then using this free food to make simple but delicious suppers.

Kate also visits neighbouring farms to discover the sustainability of stone ground flour, visits a dairy farm to make cheese and even makes mead at a local honey farm.

A beautifully filmed series across stunning landscapes, Kate Humble: My Little Farm is a true taste of the real good life.

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

In this inspirational series, presenter and country girl Kate Humble joins a family who are looking to change their lives in a big way. They're all desperate to leave the rat race behind and radically transform their quality of life.

Whether that is getting a house by the sea, or a cottage in a beautiful country village; can they sell off their cramped city pad or expensive suburban semi, pay off their mortgage and clear their debts?

It's not just about the money though – it's about lifestyle.

More time with the family, reading the kids their bedtime stories and having the space, and time, to do the things they love. This show is all about the people who want to work to live – rather than live to work.

Kate made the move herself a few years ago from central London to a farm in the Welsh countryside, so she's well placed to offer advice and tips on how they can achieve their goal and join them as they settle into their new way of life.

At the end of three months, Kate will find out if risking it all has paid off and if each family is happy that they made the move. Whether they're moving from Tooting to the Isle of Skye or Birmingham to St Ives, they're all looking to get Twice The Life for Half the Price.

THE ARCHITECTURE THE RAILWAYS BUILT

New season

Season 2: 10 x 60'

Season 3: 10 x 60'

Total available: 30 x 60'

Producer: Brown Bob Productions

Commissioning Channel: Yesterday (UKTV)

Throughout the 19th Century, railway stations were built as majestic palaces, reflecting the huge amount of money to be made from rail passengers.

Iconic bridges and viaducts were built to span valleys. New engineering had to be invented, using state of the art materials. Railway architecture is the first thing a traveller sees when they arrive in a new city, so architects all vied to create impressive symbols of national wealth.

The Architecture the Railways Built showcases stunning railway architecture from across Britain and Europe. From the grand stations of the past to the modern marvels of the new age of the train, signal boxes to viaducts and everything in between. Presenter and railway aficionado, Tim Dunn uncovers the stories behind the structures, gets incredible behind the scenes access to historic sites and gets hands on with the architecture whenever he can.

1 x 60'

Total available: 3 x 60'

Producer: ITN Productions

Commissioning Channel: Channel 4

London's iconic clock tower sitting above Britain's Parliament has been undergoing a massive restoration project since 2017. A marvel of Victorian engineering, the mechanical clocks and bells are being taken apart and painstakingly repaired, while the roof and stone work is repaired.

Architectural historian Anna Keay has exclusive behind the scenes access to this global icon, as every step of the repair reveals new challenges and new discoveries. In this latest film, Anna encounters the first big reveals, as parts of the massive project are completed. The huge clock faces and the magnificent gilded roof are restored to their original 19th Century glory.

BEYOND OUR EARTH

6 x 60'

Producer: Wildbear Entertainment

Beyond Our Earth is a highly stylised exploration of our journey to conquer space and understand the very fabric of the cosmos.

The Space Age started in 1957 with the launch of the Soviet satellite Sputnik. Since then scientists have unraveled many mysteries by studying the universe. From our first foray into space with the early shuttle program to the large Hadron Collider and the physics of the cosmos, each episode takes viewers on a voyage through the different realms of space that humankind has begun to scratch the surface of.

Over six episodes viewers travel to the furthest depths of space as they see how the early pioneers launched themselves into the void, and how modern-day scientists are understanding the universe in whole new ways. The series also reveals how we were able to push human travel to its scientific limit by putting a man on the moon, and how Mars will have a place in humanity's future as our next target.

The series uses technical animations, advanced stills treatment, archive, and a team of expert interviews to bring to life the wonders of space like never before.

FUTURE WARFARE

4 x 60'

Producer: Wildbear Entertainment

War never stops evolving.

The battlefields of the First World War were vastly different to the battlefields of today. The sprawls of trenches and tangles of barbed wire have given way to highly mobile and ever-changing theatres of battle. Yet the future of warfare still lies beyond these battlefields to the uncharted reaches of outer space, and even to the digital realm...

Technological advancements in the military have paved the way for changes in our day-to-day lives; military invention is behind the Internet, GPS and even microwave ovens and duct tape. But warfare takes technology further – from self-targeting smart guns to antimatter weaponry, lethal autonomous robots to the real-world threats of cyberspace. Understanding this military future is essential for understanding the potential future of all of our lives.

Each episode looks at the game changers in military capabilities that are resetting the character of current and future warfare, which will thrust our world into a new era. Using historical context to set up the precursors to current military technological trends, expert interviews, file footage and cutting-edge CGI with original filming, the series reveals the future of warfare.

COLD WAR: THE TECH RACE

4 x 60'

Producer: Wildbear Entertainment

Cold War: The Tech Race tells the story of the war's most influential front: the race for scientific supremacy. It was a war that brought the world to the brink of destruction. But from under the looming threat of mass annihilation came some of our most incredible scientific and engineering achievements.

The Cold War was one of the defining conflicts of the 20th century, even though its primary combatants never engaged directly in open warfare. The series explores the ground-breaking advances in a conflict defined by nuclear power, both as a global threat to life and as an emerging source of energy.

From new rockets and guidance systems that could propel warheads across the world at the press of a button, to psychological studies which informed the creation of better propaganda, to earth sciences like seismology and meteorology being used to detect secret warhead tests, to the development of computer networks and portable devices – the advances would change our lives for decades to come.

Through a mix of expert interview, revelatory archival footage and enlightening graphics that breathe life into these evolving technologies, the series reveals the true story of these science and engineering wonders: from Cold War origins to the modern world.

DANUBE: AGAINST THE FLOW

8 x 60'

Producer: Spot Productions

Commissioning Channel: AMC Networks (Central & Northern Europe)

The Danube River is central to the idea of Europe. It flows through a continent of communities often struggling with illness, war, climate change, but also all the fruits of peace. In this series, journalist Nick Thorpe portrays the Danube and its peoples in all their glory, good humour, and hard labour.

Europe faces many challenges today from the immediate hardships caused by the pandemic, to longer term issues like Britain leaving the EU and the big questions of the continent's future.

Nick Thorpe, the BBC's Central and Eastern Europe correspondent, has lived in Budapest since 1986 and has written extensively on this area. He starts his journey in Romania by the Black Sea and travels upriver passing through Bulgaria, Serbia, Croatia, Hungary, Slovakia, Austria and ending up in Germany's Black Forest.

EPIDEMIC: THE GREAT PLAGUE

NEW

3 x 60'

Producer: Voltage TV and Motion Content Group

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

Between 1655 and 1666, the Great Plague claimed the lives of 1 in 4 London residents, leading to a death toll of 200 000.

In this timeline driven, presenter-led 3-part series, we explore the story of bubonic plague in the 17th Century, focussing on this major outbreak that devastated London. New evidence will fundamentally transform our understanding of how the disease spread.

Through heart-breaking human stories, brand new science and experimental history, this series sheds new light on the infamous epidemic.

Medic Dr Xand van Tulleken, archaeologist Raksha Dave and journalist John Sergeant unpack the story of the plague, day by day, week by week and month by month. Xand is our guide to the outbreak in London, while Raksha undertakes the experiments and John explores the remedies that were used at the time.

THE DOG RESCUERS

16 x 60'

Producer: Middlechild Productions and Motion Content Group

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

With nearly a quarter of British households owning a dog, they are the nation's favourite pet – but this isn't always reflected in the way some are treated. This documentary series follows the RSPCA officers who, committed to the rescue and welfare of man's best friend, are tasked with investigating reports of cruelty and neglect.

Comedian and dog lover Alan Davies follows the familiar faces of the RSPCA's finest, as they continue their crusade against cruelty and neglect of dogs. With dramatic rescues, inspirational rehabilitations and heart-warming re-homings, viewers will see the journeys of a variety of four-legged friends who have been mistreated. From two abandoned day-old puppies, to a shar-pei in need of eye surgery, no rescue is the same.

The series also reveals the heroes who work on our behalf, new ways to bond with man's best friend, and the life of a rescue pup from birth, through walkies, and all the way to adulthood.

HOW TO BUILD A CITY

8 x 60'

Producer: Wildbear Entertainment

How to Build A City brings to life the creative genius of the historical and contemporary engineers, scientists, architects and urban planners who shaped the world's most stunning cities.

Cities are the future of humanity. The only viable way to accommodate – and sustain – a global population trending towards ten billion, by the turn of the century. The consequence of this is evident to every engineer, architect and urban planner on the planet: we are standing on the threshold of a building boom that completely defies belief, with literally half the urban area we'll need, yet to be conceived.

There are many questions that require immediate answers; many challenges that need to be addressed. Not only for generations to come, but for those living in the here and now. In order to meet each and every demand, do we try to retro-fit cities that are already bursting at the seams or build new ones, entirely from scratch? How do we second-guess what the future holds when we envisage their form and function? How do we safeguard and build for social, economic and environmental equity, when the world around us is changing so fast?

With commentary from a panel of global experts in the urban-planning arena, How to Build a City is dedicated to a different destination in each episode. We explore the way each city rose into being, and the way it continues to evolve. 3D animations and stylized graphics allow us to look back in time (and below the surface of busy city streets) to better understand the hidden anatomy of New York, Paris, Sydney, Tokyo, Seattle, Naples and Berlin.

As we race towards an increasingly urbanised future, there is much to learn from the present and the past; from the 'HOW, the NOW and the WOW' of building the greatest cities in the world.

SOUTH KOREA: THE COUNTRY THAT BEAT THE VIRUS

1 x 60'

Producer: Quicksilver Media

Commissioning Channel: Channel 4

It's only 800 miles from Wuhan where the Coronavirus pandemic seems to have started, but astonishingly South Korea has beaten back the virus and life has largely returned to normal.

How has Korea defeated the virus so far without a damaging national lockdown as has happened elsewhere? What are the vital lessons we could learn?

Filmed in hospitals, testing centers and laboratories at the heart of South Korea's struggle against Coronavirus, and with interviews with top South Korean politicians and scientists, this one-hour special takes viewers inside a relentless national effort that at almost every stage seemed faster and better planned than the UK effort.

Top experts contrast the South Korean effort with what happened in the UK and highlight what lessons we could learn about what we can do to minimize deaths when the lockdown ends.

STORMING THE CAPITOL: THE INSIDE STORY

NEW

1 x 45'

Producer: ITN Productions

Commissioning Channel: ITV

In shocking and unbelievable scenes, the very heart of the United States government was stormed by Trump supporters, just as legislators were formalising the election of President Trump's successor, Joseph Biden.

Just hours earlier Trump, his family and senior figures like Rudy Guilani, had goaded and incited the crowd that later broke down the doors of the Halls of Congress, intoxicated by the unlikely prospect of reversing an election they had come to wrongly believe was stolen from them by the Democrats. But this assault on the symbol of American democracy was a long time coming, perhaps the inevitable outcome of the Trump era, where conspiracy theory and lies were fed to the people by the President himself.

Only one news team was on the inside the building with the aggrieved and infuriated rioters that infamous day – ITV's Robert Moore, Producer Sophie Alexander and Cameraman Mark Davey – and they obtained unique and exclusive footage of what went on inside where 5 people lost their lives, and a shadow was cast over American democracy.

Was the storming of Congress orchestrated or opportunistic? Who were these protesters and what was their intent? Were they domestic terrorists, as Biden insists? How exactly did a bunch of hooligans pull off the greatest security breach since 9/11? Did the cops turn a blind eye? What is their connection to conspiracy theories? And did Trump encourage them and can he be charged with incitement?

As America reels in shock at these events, and legislators contemplate whether to remove Trump from office, Robert Moore talks us through the unprecedented events of that day with unseen footage from his time inside the Capitol in an afternoon that became the defining and dramatic conclusion to President Trump's ill-fated time in office.

JIHADI SMARTPHONE (W/T)

NEW

1 x 60'

Producer: Mentorn Media

Commissioning Channel: BBC Three

Our smartphones hold our secrets – the version of ourselves we may not want to show the world.

With extraordinary access to the contents of a smartphone used by three British men who went to Syria to fight with ISIS, journalist Mobeen Azhar tries to understand the men's motivations, how they became radicalised and ultimately, who is responsible for their one-way journey to certain death.

Using never before seen videos, photos and screenshots from the smartphone, Mobeen explores what made these three men, who came from very different backgrounds, join more than 850 Brits estimated to have gone to Syria and Iraq to fight with the world's most feared terrorist group.

Reaching out to the people who really knew them, Mobeen pieces together their stories of hopes and delusion, of boys playing men, and of minds manipulated by extremist ideology.

1000 YEARS OF HISTORY

1000 Years of History explores the defining stories of six of the world's nations; China, Russia, America, Australia, Scotland and Ireland. Told through compelling archive and contemporary footage, as well as expert insight and analysis, each of the six two-hour specials focuses on one nation's unique story and dramatic changes across the centuries.

AUSTRALIA

1 x 120' or 2 x 60'

Producer: Middlechild Productions

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

Australia: 1000 Years of History depicts Australia's defining historical moments through expert interviewees and incredible archive footage.

The history of this remarkable country, from its aboriginal origins and the first European landing in 1606, to the conflict and disease brought by the arrival of the British in 1788 is explored in this astonishing 2 hour film.

First used by the British as a penal colony, Australia grew in importance during the 19th Century, eventually winning independence in 1901.

Over the course of the 20th Century, the new nation underwent rapid urban expansion, extensive mining of natural resources, and in a major tourism boom. This has created huge wealth but may also have contributed to the colossal climate change challenges the country now faces.

The film also illustrates how today Australia is one of the most exciting and alluring countries on the planet. It is a destination for everything from the bright lights of amazing cities to its golden coastlines and stunning corals reefs and the rich biodiversity of its wildlife.

Australia: 1000 Years of History will chart the meteoric rise to where the country finds itself today.

AMERICA

Producer: Middlechild Productions

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

America: 1000 Years of History depicts America's defining historical moments and explores the incredible story of how this remarkable country was formed and became the powerhouse we see today.

The United States of America was once a sparsely inhabited 4000 million square miles of extreme wilderness, scorching desert, colossal lakes and frozen mountains. Fast forward a thousand years and America is now completely transformed. It is now home to 327 million people and the centre of global capitalism.

This film reveals how in just one thousand years America has become the extraordinary nation we see today.

RUSSIA

1 x 120' or 2 x 60'

Producer: Lambent Productions

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

This is the epic story of Russia, a nation which perhaps more than any other, has been witness to 1000 years of explosive drama, all concealed behind an iron curtain of intrigue and mystery.

The series unravels the enigma that is Russia and tell the extraordinary story of how a collection of medieval tribes became the biggest country in the world.

Everything, from the shocking highs and lows of Tsarist rule to one of the most significant events of the 20th century, the Russian Revolution, is covered in this fascinating documentary.

1000 YEARS OF HISTORY

CHINA

1 x 120' or 2 x 60'

Producer: Lambent Productions

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

This documentary tells the epic story of China's last 1000 years.

It's a rollercoaster ride that begins with China on top of the world a millennium ago, only for it to come crashing down centuries later as it faced annihilation, before then making the most astonishing comeback in history, to become a country on the brink of global domination.

This programme unpicks China's past to understand how a supposedly communist country could become one of the most successful capitalist nations on earth.

The story begins in Song Dynasty China, and reveals the secrets behind China's extraordinary advancement at the time. This was a country that had built The Great Wall, and was on top of the world, inventing and trading in a way that Europeans at the time could never have imagined.

The parallels with today's China are striking: education is key to rising above the masses, and commerce is King. This is in China's DNA, written in its history, and visible for all to see today.

The documentary shows how in just the last 70 years, Chairman Mao tried to rebuild the country, only to kill millions in pursuit of his communist vision, before China then bounced back, to become a country that will dominate this century.

Producer: Raise the Roof

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

An epic journey through one thousand years of Scottish history, from the tension and rivalries that threatened to tear it apart centuries ago to the present day Scotland; a major player both economically and politically.

From Scotland's founding as a nation of different peoples who spoke different languages, Scotland alternated between peace and war with its powerful neighbour England, and managed a close alliance with France.

It's a history of religious turbulence, rebellions, wars and iconic figures like William Wallace and Mary Queen of Scots.

Producer: Raise the Roof

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

An epic journey through 1000 years of Irish History, from the legendary hero Brian Boru, through centuries of royal battles and ending with the story of the modern-day success of Ireland's peace process and a booming economy.

This is a tale of brutal conflict, bloody rebellion and famine that led to mass emigration where many American presidents and over 70 million people claim Irish heritage.

From an island of Gaelic Kings, monks, and Viking settlers, Ireland was shaped by 8 centuries of warfare with English royalty, leaving it divided with a Republic in the south, and the north forming part of the United Kingdom.

21ST CENTURY MYTHOLOGIES

1 x 60'

Producer: ClearStory

Commissioning Channel: BBC Four

Art historian Professor Richard Clay explores how the 1957 book "Mythologies" by French philosopher Roland Barthes laid bare the myth-making at the heart of popular culture.

Now, following in Barthes' footsteps, Richard Clay dissects some of the everyday myths we still take for granted in the 21st Century, revealing the hidden meanings in everything from money to the Madonna, Wi-Fi to race. It's a journey that takes us from Paris to Margate, from Manhattan's streets to Florence's Accademia.

Richard Clay meets avant-garde artists including Clet Abraham, Ingrid Burrington, Molly Soda and Rene Matic, whose works subvert the assumptions underpinning the way we see our world.

We are introduced to semiotics – the study of signs and symbols, an analytical tool kit that helps us navigate advertising and its demands on our attention.

In today's world of relentless digital information, Richard Clay argues that myths have the ability to hoodwink us more than ever. What might Roland Barthes have made of the 21st Century?

NUREMBERG: NAZIS ON TRIAL

1 x 90'

Producer: Middlechild Productions

Commissioning Channel: Channel 5

Exactly 75 years ago, the "greatest trial in history" dramatically unfolded in a courtroom at The Palace of Justice, in Nuremberg, Germany

Once the home of Nazi propaganda rallies, the city was now playing host to the sensational war crimes prosecutions of Nazi Germany's leaders – including the murder of millions of Jews during the Holocaust.

This compelling film, using archive, and recently recovered, newly digitised filmed material from the trial, follows the twists and turns of the courtroom drama blow-by-blow and tells the story of the most incredible war crimes trial the world has ever seen in a way that will keep audiences gripped to the end.

Can the prosecutors do enough to convict the Nazi Party's highest-ranking members, and if so, will they pay the ultimate price for their crimes – death by hanging?
